Instructions to Offerors

A. Introduction

1. General

See details in the TOR.

2. Cost of proposal

The Offeror shall bear all costs associated with the preparation and submission of the Proposal, the UNDP will in no case be responsible or liable for those costs, regardless of the conduct or outcome of the solicitation.

B. Solicitation Documents

3. Contents of solicitation documents

Proposals must offer services for the total requirement. Proposals offering only part of the requirement will be rejected. The Offeror is expected to examine all corresponding instructions, forms, terms and specifications contained in the Solicitation Documents. Failure to comply with these documents will be at the Offeror's risk and may affect the evaluation of the Proposal.

4. Clarification of solicitation documents

A prospective Offeror requiring any clarification of the Solicitation Documents may notify the procuring UNDP entity in writing at the organisation's mailing address or fax number indicated in the RFP. The procuring UNDP entity will respond in writing to any request for clarification of the Solicitation Documents that it receives earlier than one week prior to the deadline for the submission of Proposals. Written copies of the organisation's response (including an explanation of the query but without identifying the source of inquiry) will be sent to all prospective Offerors that has sent email to nguyen.thi.hoang.yen@undp.org confirming their participation in this bidding.

Please send your questions on solicitation documents to: nguyen.thi.hoang.yen@undp.org

Offerors are responsible for checking the UNDP website (www.undp.org.vn) for any addenda and updated deadline to this Request for Proposals. UNDP reserves the right to post addenda up to the closing date for submissions. Hence bidders are advised to check the UNDP website frequently prior to submitting their proposal.

5. Amendments of solicitation documents

At any time prior to the deadline for submission of Proposals, the procuring UNDP entity may, for any reason, whether at its own initiative or in response to a clarification requested by a prospective Offeror, modify the Solicitation Documents by amendment.

All prospective Offerors that have received the Solicitation Documents will be notified in writing of all amendments to the Solicitation Documents.

In order to afford prospective Offerors reasonable time in which to take the amendments into account in preparing their offers, the procuring UNDP entity may, at its discretion, extend the deadline for the submission of Proposals.

C. Preparation of Proposals

6. Language of the proposal

The Proposals prepared by the Offeror and all correspondence and documents relating to the Proposal exchanged by the Offeror and the procuring UNDP entity shall be written in the English language. Any printed literature furnished by the Offeror may be written in another language so long as accompanied by an English translation of its pertinent passages in which case, for purposes of interpretation of the Proposal, the English translation shall govern.

7. Documents comprising the proposal

The Proposal shall comprise the following components:

- (a) Proposal submission form;
- (b) Operational and technical part of the Proposal, including documentation to demonstrate that the Offeror meets all requirements;
- (c) Price schedule, completed in accordance with clauses 8 and 9;

8. Proposal form

Your technical proposal should include, but not necessarily be limited to, the following information:

(a) Management plan

This section should provide corporate orientation to include the year and state/country of incorporation and a brief description of the Offeror's present activities. It should focus on services related to the Proposal. References must be provided for each assignment undertaken by the offeror that UNDP may contact.

This section should also describe the organizational unit(s) that will become responsible for the contract, and the general management approach towards a project of this kind. The Offeror should comment on its experience in similar projects and identify the person(s) representing the Offeror in any future dealing with the procuring UNDP entity.

(b) Resource plan

This should fully explain the Offeror's resources in terms of personnel and facilities necessary for the performance of this requirement. It should describe the Offeror's current capabilities/facilities and any plans for their expansion.

Team Composition and Task Assignments: Here you should propose the structure and composition of your team. You should list the main disciplines of the assignment and the key expert responsible, using the format given below:

Name of staff member	Area of expertise	Position assigned	Tasks assigned

Signed Curriculum Vitae (CV) for proposed professional staff. Provide CVs for staff assigned in a uniform format (maximum 4 pages per staff member).

It is required that the proposed staff confirms in their CVs that they are not tendering for the same contract in any other form including their involvement in tendering preparation.

(c) Proposed methodology

This section should demonstrate the Offeror's responsiveness to the specification by identifying the specific components proposed, addressing the requirements, as specified, point by point; providing a detailed description of the essential performance characteristics proposed warranty; and demonstrating how the proposed methodology meets or exceeds the specifications, including the number of person-months in each specialization that you consider necessary to carry out all work required. Bar-charts should support your proposal.

This is the key element of your proposal. Under 'Approach and Methodology' you should explain your understanding of the objectives of the assignment, your methodology for carrying out the activities and obtaining the expected outputs. You should highlight the problems being addressed and their importance, and explain the technical approach you would adopt to address them.

Under 'Work Plan' you should propose the main activities of the assignment, their content and duration, phasing and delivery dates of the reports. The proposed work plan should be consistent with the technical approach and methodology.

The operational and technical part of the Proposal should not contain any pricing information whatsoever on the services offered. Pricing information shall be separated and only contained in the appropriate Price Schedules.

It is recommended that the Offeror's Proposal numbering system corresponds with the numbering system used in the body of this RFP. All references to descriptive material and brochures should be included in the appropriate response paragraph, though material/documents themselves may be provided as annexes to the Proposal/response.

Information which the Offeror considers proprietary, if any, should be clearly marked "proprietary" next to the relevant part of the text and it will then be treated as such accordingly.

9. Proposal prices

The Offeror shall indicate on an appropriate Price Schedule, an example of which is contained in these Solicitation Documents, prices of services it proposes to supply under the contract. The Price Schedule must contain a single all inclusive price for all services to be provided in order to satisfactory complete the tasks required in the TOR (consultancy fees, airfares, travel cost, meal, accommodation, terminals, applicable tax, visa, insurance etc) with break-down lump sum amount for each item.

10. Proposal currencies

- For international bidders: All prices shall be quoted in US dollars.
- For local bidders: All prices shall be quoted in Vietnam Dong (Otherwise, prices shall be converted to Vietnam Dong at UN Exchange Rate at the submission deadline.)

11. Period of validity of proposals

Proposals shall remain valid for (120) days after the date of Proposal submission prescribed by the procuring UNDP entity, pursuant to the deadline clause. A Proposal valid for a shorter period may be rejected by the procuring UNDP entity on the grounds that it is non-responsive.

In exceptional circumstances, the procuring UNDP entity may solicit the Offeror's consent to an extension of the period of validity. The request and the responses thereto shall be made in writing. An Offeror granting the request will not be required nor permitted to modify its Proposal.

12. Format and signing of proposals

The Offeror shall prepare one "original proposal" and one copy of the Proposal, clearly marking each "Original Proposal" and "Copy of Proposal" as appropriate. In the event of any discrepancy between them, the original shall govern.

The original Proposal shall be typed or written in indelible ink and shall be signed by the Offeror or a person or persons duly authorized to bind the Offeror to the contract. The latter authorization shall be indicated by written power-of-attorney accompanying the Proposal.

A Proposal shall contain no interlineations, erasures, or overwriting except, as necessary to correct errors made by the Offeror, in which case such corrections shall be initialed by the person or persons signing the Proposal.

13. Payment

UNDP shall effect payments to the Contractor after acceptance by UNDP of the invoices submitted by the contractor, upon achievement of the corresponding milestones.

D. Submission of Proposals

14. Sealing and marking of proposals

If submitted electronically, please send the technical and financial proposals as separate documents in pdf format. Proposals should be emailed to procurement.vn@undp.org with the subject line:

{Name of company} RFP for End of Project Evaluation – Project 00059659

UNDP will acknowledge receipt of proposals within 01 working day after the deadline. Offerors are responsible to contact UNDP to clarify if they do not receive acknowledgment from UNDP. The request for clarification must be within 02 days after deadline.

Maximum size for electronic submission: The maximum size per email that UNDP can receive is 9 MB. Offerors can split proposals into several parts to fit the email size.

If submitted in hard copies, the Offeror shall seal the Proposal in one outer and two inner envelopes, as detailed below.

(a) The outer envelope shall be:

- addressed to:

Procurement Unit
UNDP Viet Nam
72 Ly Thuong Kiet, Ha Noi, Viet Nam
Telephone number: (84-4) 3 9421495
Telefax number: (84-4) 3 9422267

- marked with:

{Name of company} RFP for End of Project Evaluation – Project 00059659

- (b) Both inner envelopes shall indicate the name and address of the Offeror. The first inner envelope shall contain the information specified in Clause 8 (Proposal form) above, with the copies duly marked “Original” and “Copy”. The second inner envelope shall include the price schedule duly identified as such.

Note: if the inner envelopes are not sealed and marked as per the instructions in this clause, the procuring UNDP entity will not assume responsibility for the Proposal’s misplacement or premature opening.

15. Deadline for submission of proposals

Proposals must be received by the procuring UNDP entity at the address specified under clause Sealing and marking of Proposals no later than 17.00 hours, 10 September 2012 – Hanoi time.

The procuring UNDP entity may, at its own discretion extend this deadline for the submission of Proposals by amending the solicitation documents in accordance with clause Amendments of Solicitation Documents, in which case all rights and obligations of the procuring UNDP entity and Offerors previously subject to the deadline will thereafter be subject to the deadline as extended.

In case you find that additional time to prepare high quality proposal is needed, please submit written request to UNDP for consideration.

16. Late Proposals

Any Proposal received by the procuring UNDP entity after the deadline for submission of proposals, pursuant to clause Deadline for the submission of proposals, will be rejected.

17. Modification and withdrawal of Proposals

The Offeror may withdraw its Proposal after the Proposal's submission, provided that written notice of the withdrawal is received by the procuring UNDP entity prior to the deadline prescribed for submission of Proposals.

The Offeror's withdrawal notice shall be prepared, sealed, marked, and dispatched in accordance with the provisions of clause Deadline for Submission of Proposals. The withdrawal notice may also be sent by telex or fax but followed by a signed confirmation copy.

No Proposal may be modified subsequent to the deadline for submission of proposals.

No Proposal may be withdrawn in the Interval between the deadline for submission of proposals and the expiration of the period of proposal validity specified by the Offeror on the Proposal Submission Form.

E. Opening and Evaluation of Proposals

18. Opening of proposals

The procuring entity will open the Proposals in the presence of a Committee formed by the Head of the procuring UNDP entity.

19. Clarification of proposals

To assist in the examination, evaluation and comparison of Proposals, the Purchaser may at its discretion, ask the Offeror for clarification of its Proposal. The request for clarification and the response shall be in writing and no change in price or substance of the Proposal shall be sought, offered or permitted.

20. Preliminary examination

The Purchaser will examine the Proposals to determine whether they are complete, whether any computational errors have been made, whether the documents have been properly signed, legal documents are provided and whether the Proposals are generally in order.

Arithmetical errors will be rectified on the following basis: If there is a discrepancy between the unit price and the total price that is obtained by multiplying the unit price and quantity, the unit price shall prevail and the total price shall be corrected. If the Offeror does not accept the correction of errors, its Proposal will be rejected. If there is a discrepancy between words and figures the amount in words will prevail.

Prior to the detailed evaluation, the Purchaser will determine the substantial responsiveness of each Proposal to the Request for Proposals (RFP). For purposes of these Clauses, a substantially responsive Proposal is one which conforms to all the terms and conditions of the RFP without material deviations. The Purchaser's determination of a Proposal's responsiveness is based on the contents of the Proposal itself without recourse to extrinsic evidence.

A Proposal determined as not substantially responsive will be rejected by the Purchaser and may not subsequently be made responsive by the Offeror by correction of the non-conformity.

21. Evaluation of proposals

Technical proposals will be evaluated using the following criteria (see detailed evaluation below)

- a) the company/organization's general reliability as well as experience and capacity in the specific field of the assignment (200 points)
- b) the approach in responding to the TOR and the detailed work plan (400 points)
- c) the qualifications and competence of the personnel proposed for the assignment for a total (400 points)

A two-stage procedure is utilized in evaluating the proposals, with evaluation of the technical proposal being completed prior to any price proposal being opened and compared. The price proposal of the Proposals will be opened only for submissions that passed the minimum technical score of 70% of the obtainable score of 1000 points in the evaluation of the technical proposals.

The technical proposal is evaluated on the basis of its responsiveness to the Term of Reference (TOR).

Maximum 1000 points will be given to the lowest offer and the other financial proposals will receive the points inversely proportional to their financial offers. i.e. $S_f = 1000 \times F_m / F$, in which S_f is the financial score, F_m is the lowest price and F the price of the proposal under consideration.

The weight of technical points is 70% and financial points is 30%.

Proposal obtaining the highest weighted points (technical points + financial points) will be selected.

Our vendor protest procedure is intended to afford an opportunity to appeal to persons or firms not awarded a purchase order or contract in a competitive procurement process. It is not available to non-responsive or non-timely proposers/bidders or when all proposals/bids are rejected. In the event that you believe you have not been fairly treated, you can find detailed information about vendor protest procedures in the following link: <http://www.undp.org/procurement/protest.shtml>.

TERMS OF REFERENCE (TOR)

SERVICE: End of Project Evaluation
PROJECT: “Strengthening the Capacities for Budgetary Decision and Oversight of People’s Elected Bodies in Vietnam”
DUTY STATION: Viet Nam (Ha Noi and 6-9 selected provinces)
EXPECTED DURATION: From 10 September to 20 October 2012

I. GENERAL BACKGROUND

UNDP began to support the institutional strengthening of budgetary decision and oversight the National Assembly (NA) and Provincial People's Councils (PCs, local assemblies) since 2003 through a close cooperation with the National Assembly Committee on Budget and Economy from 2003 to 2007 and then the Committee on Finance and Budget Affairs since 2008. The current 5-year project, which officially started in June 2009, has been designed around three main components:

- Vision and development strategy, including general and crosscutting issues
- Strengthening capacity of state budget decision and oversight for National Assembly's institutions and supporting staff.
- Strengthening capacity of state budget decision and oversight for provincial people's councils and support staff.

The ultimate objective of the Project is to enhance the capacity of People's elected bodies in budgetary decision and oversight with the following focuses:

Ensure the power of People's elected bodies in deciding on strategic priorities of socio-economic development that the State budget should be oriented, linking with the formation of a modern public finance and budget allocation norms based on sound foundations;

Ensure the accountability, transparency and wide participation of people and business community in budget revenues and expenditures by establishing and smoothly operating i) a system and indicators for oversight, monitoring and assessment of budget activities of the Government and of State budget users; ii) a reporting system providing timely information on suitable budget requirements of People's elected bodies; iii) a mechanism to ensure the participation of people and business community in budget activities of People's elected bodies;

Enhance institutional capacity, legal framework and budgetary skills for People's elected deputies and support staff in budget area, including policy research capacity with focus on reforming research methodology and improving the availability and quality of the economic-budgetary database

Beneficiaries are Committee for Finance and Budget Affairs; Ethnic Council and other related committees of the National Assembly; State Audit; Ministry of Planning and Investment; Ministry of Finance; Selected Provincial People's Councils.

As designed in the Detailed Project Outlines (DPO) the final evaluation will assess the achievement, relevance, effectiveness, and efficiency of the project during the period from June 2009 to end of 2012. The evaluation looks at early signs of potential impact and sustainability of results.

UNDP and CFBA Project are calling for technical and financial proposals from bidders that can provide expected outputs and meet other requirements as specified herewith.

II. OBJECTIVE OF THE ASSIGNMENT

In this context, the objective of the Evaluation is

- to assess the implementation of the project since its start in June 2009 (results, achievements, constraints) against expected results defined in the project document and annual workplans
- to assess operational aspects such as project management in achieving the project results.
- to synthesize lessons to help improve the design and implementation of activities within future projects in related thematic areas

III. SCOPE OF WORK

The anticipated scope of work for the assignment includes, but is not necessarily limited to, assessing the following:

- An in-depth review of the implementation of various project components with a view to identifying the level of achievement of the planned project outputs, the contribution to institutional development and sustainable human capacities;
- Assessment of the level of participation of stakeholders in the achievement of the desired outcomes, as well as the effectiveness of such participation;
- Assessment of the primary impact of the capacity development in budgetary area for both the National Assembly and People's Councils (local assemblies). Possible gaps/weakness in the current project design and possible interventions and measures that could be continued to support the NA and PPCs in the future.
- Extract lessons learned and best practices that can be considered in the planning and design of future support activities for enhancing the budgetary decision and oversight capacities of people's elected bodies in Vietnam.

Apart from that, project's results should be rated in the following aspects:

Relevance: Evaluate the logics and unity of the process in planning and designing the activities for supporting the budget decision and oversight capacities of NA and People's Councils.

Efficiency: Evaluate the efficiency of the project implementation, the quality of the results achieved and the time/political constraints.

Effectiveness: Conduct an assessment management decisions vis-à-vis the cost effectiveness; and to which extend the project outputs have been effectively achieved.

Impact: Evaluate the overall impact of the project and its contribution to enhancing the role of the National Assembly and People's Councils in budgetary area, especially in the development of the legal and institutional framework to ensure a more efficient participation of people's elected bodies in the budgetary cycle.

Sustainability: Assess the sustainability of results with specific focus on national capacity and ownership over the process.

IV. METHODOLOGY

This final evaluation will adhere to the United Nations Evaluation Group's Norms & Standards (which can be found in the following link)

http://www.uneval.org/papersandpubs/documentdetail.jsp?doc_id=22

ANNEX II-A

ETHICAL CODE OF CONDUCT FOR UNDP EVALUATIONS

Evaluations of UNDP-supported activities need to be independent, impartial and rigorous. Each evaluation should clearly contribute to learning and accountability. Hence evaluators must have personal and professional integrity and be guided by propriety in the conduct of their business.

Evaluators:

Must present information that is complete and fair in its assessment of strengths and weaknesses so that decisions or actions taken are well founded

Must disclose the full set of evaluation findings along with information on their limitations and have this accessible to all affected by the evaluation with expressed legal rights to receive results.

Should protect the anonymity and confidentiality of individual informants. They should provide maximum notice, minimize demands on time, and: respect people's right not to engage. Evaluators must respect people's right to provide information in confidence, and must ensure that sensitive information cannot be traced to its source. Evaluators are not expected to evaluate individuals, and must balance an evaluation of management functions with this general principle.

Evaluations sometimes uncover evidence of wrongdoing. Such cases must be reported discreetly to the appropriate investigative body. Evaluators should consult with other relevant oversight entities when there is any doubt about if and how issues should be reported.

Should be sensitive to beliefs, manners and customs and act with integrity and honesty in their relations with all stakeholders. In line with the UN Universal Declaration of Human Rights, evaluators must be sensitive to and address issues of discrimination and gender equality. They should avoid offending the dignity and self-respect of those persons with whom they come in contact in the course of the evaluation. Knowing that evaluation might negatively affect the interests of some stakeholders, evaluators should conduct the evaluation and communicate its purpose and results in a way that clearly respects the stakeholders' dignity and self-worth.

Are responsible for their performance and their product(s). They are responsible for the clear, accurate and fair written and/or oral presentation of study limitations, findings and recommendations.

Should reflect sound accounting procedures and be prudent in using the resources of the evaluation.

PRICE SCHEDULE

The Contractor is asked to prepare the Price Schedule as a separate envelope (or pdf document if submitting electronically) from the rest of the RFP response as indicated in Section D paragraph 14 (b) of the Instruction to Offerors.

The Price Schedule must provide a detailed cost breakdown. Provide separate figures for each functional grouping or category.

Estimates for cost-reimbursable items, if any, such as travel, and out of pocket expenses should be listed separately.

All related applicable taxes are included in the offered prices.

In case of an equipment component to the service provided, the Price Schedule should include figures for both purchase and lease/rent options. The UNDP reserves the option to either lease/rent or purchase outright the equipment through the Contractor.

The format shown on the following pages should be used in preparing the price schedule. The format includes specific expenditures, which may or may not be required or applicable but are indicated to serve as examples.
