Brief Description

In 2010-2012 Capacity Development Facility project (CDF) produced significant results and was instrumental in supporting the President's Office, the Provisional Government and its administrative structures in maintaining peace and conflict resolution in the aftermath of 2010 political instability and inter-ethnic violence. With adoption of a new Constitution, envisaging parliamentary form of governance, the focus of the project shifted to facilitating design and execution of the new national strategic frameworks improving efficiency, accountability and transparency of the governance processes.

In 2013-2014 the project continued its support to the President's Office and the Prime Minister's Office, as the major counterpart, in advancing and promoting strategic initiatives in the area of public administration reform. After midterm review held with assistance of BRC Capacity Development Experts in February 2013, project scope envisages two outputs:

- Professionalism, efficiency, transparency and accountability of public administration improved through policy support and capacity development
- Internal operations of identified state institutions improved leading to strengthened policy development and implementation

In November 2014 the independent final evaluation was conducted according to the guidance, rules and procedures established by UNDP as reflected in the Cost-sharing Agreement between the Foundation Open Society Institute – Zug and the UNDP. The significant achievements of CDF in area of public administration reform were recognized by the final evaluation team. These were also recognized by several key project partners such as the Prime-minister Office, the Ministry of Economy, the State Personnel Service, Coordination Council of PACs, etc. Herewith they marked the need to continue project support on several main priorities in area of PAR, such as an optimization and introducing gender sensitivity framework of public and municipal services system as well as institutionalization of performance evaluation of governmental units and LSG bodies including gender responsive instruments, launching of E- Governance Strategy, etc.

It should be noted that bearing in mind the importance and relevance of main project activities with the priorities identified in the National Strategy for Sustainable Development of the Kyrgyz Republic for the period 2013-2017 and Government Program and Plan for Transition of the KR to Sustainable Development for 2013-2017, UNDP took a decision to extend this project for one next year, i.e. till December 2015.

In 2015 CDF will continue the assistance to the Prime-minister Office on abovementioned priorities. It will have a multi-sided focus on individual, organizational and national capacity and skills by supporting the drivers of empowerment, leadership, public participation and institutional change.

The overall project duration is six years staring from Oct. 2010 till Dec. 2015.
